S. P. Read, Esq., Treasurer Board of Education, Memphis, Tennessee:

DEAR SIR - As you are doubtless aware, the post-ponement of the collection of State and county taxes until next September has deprived the board of education, temporarily, of a large portion of their revenue. In consequence of the scarcity of funds, the board decided to clese the schools on the last Friday in May, which is earnier than would have been done under more favorable financial circumstances. Even then by a careful estimate, we find we will be in debt to the extent of fitteen to sixteen thousand dollars. The board are very much averse to dismissing teachers and other employes without paying them their hard carned wages. The finance committee, acting for the board in this matter, are very destrous that some arrangement may be made by which the necessary funds may be raised to at least pay off the employes, and by anticipating the revenue yet to be derived, we hope and believe you can accomplish the object. Mency is planty and can be readily borrowed, provided the prospect of payment is made clear to those having the funds to lone. The finance commit ee therefore submit for your consideration the following facts as to the sources, from which funds will be forthcoming in a few months, and sufficient to meet all Habilities. The figures hereinafter given were obtained from the office of the county trustee, Major George B. Fleece, from personal x-amination of books and papers, alded by Mr. A. P. Tuck, the cuief clerk in said office. We would add that Mr. Tuck informed the committee, while the figures were being made, that in his option we were that Mr. Tuck informed the committee, while the figures were being made, that in his opinion we were under the actual resources in every instance. The committee have endeavered to make a plain fair statement, and not exergistate the probable it come. The State and county taxes as assessed for the year 1879 for school purposes amounts to $31-166 78; we deduct one fifth as possibly not collectable, or $6293 35, leaving the amount to be collected $24.933 43. Of this amount the Taxing District will receive about nine-twenty-thirds, or $4756. The poli-tax (State and county) as assessed is $35,-442; we deem it safe to say one third will be collected, or $11,814. Of this amount the schools in the Taxing District receive the same proportion as above, or about $477. The two items mentioned above are due and collectable by distraint on the first of September next, penalty being added at that time. In audition to the above there is still due for school purposes, from taxes due the Taxing District, and which is being daily collected, about $4500; also our proportion of the State dividend, due the first of July next, about $1540. Summing up the above, we get as a total statement of a seet due early in the talt the following:

RECAPITULATION. Due from State and county...
Due from poll-tax...
Due from Taxing District...
Due from State dividend....

As an additional security, the State and county taxes for 18-9 are due the first of next October, and are collectable by distraint on the first of January following, and said taxes have, by decree of the county court, been increased from 5 cents to 10 cests on the $100, or double the amount previously collected. In view of these facts, the finance committee thina that say $14.000 might be safely borrowed until some time next fall, to be paid as fast as the taxes mentioned above are collected. This amount we would draw about as follows: $5000 as soon as the arrangement can be made, $4.500 about May 15th, and $4,500 about June 1st. All the funds collected for the board of education go into your hands as treasurer. Warrants for payment of teachers, etc., could be drawn on you as usual, and you could hold such warrants as e listeral, until redeemed by deposits to your credit as treasurer as fast as the taxes are collected. The board of education could pass a resolution instructing you to apply all funds coming into your hands to the payment of this advance, in preference to and to the exclusion of any other debt of the board, until the enture amount was liquidated. This is our outline of a plan by which relief can be obtained for needy employes, and with perfect safety to those advancing the money. We will be obliged if you will see whe her such an arrangement can be effected, also for such advice or suggestions as you may think proper in the premises. Ou receipt of your answer (which we hope may be at an early day) we will submit same to a called meeting of the board of education for final action. Very respectfully, yours, JOHN E. HANDLE.

W. T. Alennogron,

A. S. Livermone. MONEYED INSTITUTIONS.

Mr. Livermore added that the following moneyed institutions had agreed to lend the money required: Union and Planters bank, First national bank, Bank of Commerce, Hernando insurance company, Ptosux insurance company, Biuff City insurance company, Memphis city fire and general insurance com pany and the Planters insurance company, RESOLUTIONS ADOPTED. Mr. Livermore stated that the finance committee presented the following resolutions and asked that they be adopted by the board. The resolutions were then read and unanimously adopted:

MERREAS, Certain money corporations for the relief of this board, its employes and creditors, have agreed to take up from the holders thereof, at par, all warrants on the trassurer that this board may be under the necessity of ordering issued, in settlement of its indebtedness, up to the closing of the schools on the last Friday in May, 1880, say about fifteen thousand dollars ($15,000) in excess of funds that are exceeded to come into the hands of the treasurer by that time; now, in order to secure the aforesaid corporations, it is hereby Resolved, That all past-jue taxes and the taxes of 1879 a. d. 1880, assessed and accruing, for the benefit or the board of education for the Memphis city schools, are hereby pledged and set aside for the recemption of said warrants, and the treasurer is hereby instructed, first of all other matters, as fast as bonds come into his hands, to apply the same in paying off said warrants, dividing such payments equitably among the said corporations.

Resolved, That upon final redemption of said warrants, the resident and accreary are hereby instructed to issue a warrant to each of said corporations for interest for the time said warrants were held.

Resolved. That the finance committee is here!
instructed to order no nore warrants issued, after il are issued, in accordance with this resolu il said warrants are all redeemed. ADJOURNMENT.
